FROM THE SOLDIERS

Dear Calvin—As I am not doing anything, I will let you know how camp life is down here in old Alabama. We have a very nice camp now, as we have it about cleaned up, but it sure was rough at first.

There are about 30,000 soldiers here now. All the regiments have been broken up and put in new ones. The old 1st Virginia was put in the 116 Infantry. We have 3700 men in our regiment, the 116th, and 53 men in the medical department. I like it lots better than the old one. I am a sergeant now, and I guess that is all I get, as you have to be an M. D. to hold a commission.

We have Saturday, Sunday and Wednesday afternoons off. I usually play baseball or football. We are eight miles from town. It is only a small place and there is not much attraction.

Meade Arbogast is in the same outfit. He is a sergeant and getting along fine. Ligon McNeel and Ligon Coyner are here, and we have some good old talks of old times up the Greenbrier.

I think we will be here three months, but we all think we will get a nice trip about January. Are you not sorry you are married, so you you could go along?

Where and how is Dr. Norman getting along? John sent me the Times and it sure looks good to a fellow away from home.

With best regards to all the fellows—

To my Pocahontas friends—This finds us in camp. We arrived here September 23, at 2 p. m., all of the boys feeling fine. We are all in training and uniform and like it fine. Some of the boys have been very sick from vaccination and sore arms. We have a fine Y. M. C. A., with a big fire place, piano and other musical instruments, and plenty of stationery. We want to thank the Red Cross for the comfort kits and the attention shown us. We find many useful things in our kits. We wish also to thank the good people of Marlinton for the good music, the show and the other courtesies extended to us.

Edwin Garing, 305 Trench Mortar Battery, 155 Brigade, F. A., Camp Lee, writing to Howard McElwee, says everything at Camp Lee is O. K. and that he must come down and see them drill, as the Pocahontas loggers can cut the shine. He says there is a wonderful lot of pretty girls in that part of Virginia, but his heart still seems to be in the highlands for he says he can never forgive Mr. McNeel, of the Local Board, for not letting him go to Huntersville, the night before he had to go to Camp Lee. Garing says his arm is sore from the vaccination. If he can get off Xmas and the roads are fit, he wants Mr. McElwee to come for him, Bill Cole and Clyde McLaughlin in his car. He would like to have the address of Tom Kennedy, who volunteered in the State Guard, and is now stationed at Camp Shelby, Hattiesburg, Miss.

Cecil Shinnabery, 37, Co. 10, B. V. Depot Brigade, Camp Lee, writes: We arrived at Camp safe and are getting along fine. Tell the rest of the boys to bring a pillow and everything else that they can bring handy, for they will need it.

WAR REVENUE BILL

There is much speculation among exhibitors regarding the war tax, which goes into effect November 1st. Contrary to a pre-conceived impression there will be no special stamps to be attached to admission tickets or special tickets of any kind. Instead the exhibitor will make a report, under oath, at the end of each month, setting forth the number of taxable admissions he has handled and pay accordingly.

Some exhibitors are apprehensive as to the results of the war tax on business. They fear the extra ten per cent will result in decreased attendance. Such should not prove the case, as the public knows the exhibitor does not get the extra ten per cent—the contrary the patron should be proud to do his bit in this manner.

The provisions of the war tax bill as applied to moving picture houses is that for every ten cent admission charged in a motion picture theater one cent has to be set aside for the Government. In case the admission price is fifteen cents, two cents are set aside, and so on. In other words, it is a straight ten per cent tax on admissions levied in units of ten cents. Persons admitted on passes are also called upon to pay a tax, the amount of which is to correspond to the price charged for the seat to which the pass entitles them. A person entering a theatre on a pass and taking a fifteen-cent seat is foredoomed to pay a tax of two cents.

The attention of exhibitors is called especially to Section 702 and Section 503 of the bill which provides for the manner in which the tax is to be collected and paid. The exhibitor must do all the work. He is called upon to collect the tax from the person entering the theatre, make out a report in duplicate and pay the taxes to the collector of internal revenue in the district in which his theatre bill covering every form is business activity is located. These payments must be made monthly, and their accuracy subscribed to under oath.—The Moving Picture Bulletin.

The Durbin school opened October 1st, with C. E. Flynn and Miss Gladys Pelling as teachers, with an enrollment of 90 pupils. Within a week it was 100. If the pupils from the Tannery were added to this number it would give Durbin an enrollment of 140 pupils.

A PROPOSED CELEBRATION

The Four Hundredth anniversary of the Protestant Reformation is to be celebrated in a peculiarly worthy way by the Presbyterian people and their friends in this section. A quiet but determined effort is being made to wipe out entirely the long-standing indebtedness on the Lewisburg Seminary as a part of a nation-wide campaign for education now being conducted by all the churches. In recognition of the day when the famous theses that started the Reformation was nailed to the church door at Wittenberg a great educational advance is being made by all the churches in America. The amounts being sought by the various campaigns range all the way from thirty-six million dollars down to two million by one of the smaller denominations. As a part of this general effort the trustees of the Seminary are already in the midst of a canvass which is to result in placing the Seminary entirely out of debt—a situation which the institution has not known since the borrowing of its first sum from the State Fund over a generation ago.

Rev. R. B. Hudson, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, President Adams, and Rev. D. P. McGeachy of Lewisburg are conducting the campaign which has received the endorsement of Greenbrier Presbytery and the Synod of West Virginia.

Some years ago a campaign was made which resulted in the payment by the Seminary of what was known as the Bank Debt. The amount which is now being raised is to pay what is known as the State Debt since the principal item in the total is the amount borrowed a generation ago from the State's Irregular School Fund. The present high cost of living has made the interest charge too heavy for the school to bear and further impetus is added to the effort by the fact that a number of friends of the school in other sections have offered to lead in a campaign for enlarging and ending the institution provided the people of this section will wipe out the indebtedness. It is a part of the plan to hold a great celebration in the Seminary about the middle of December at which the bonds are to be burned and friends of the school from every section of the Greenbrier region are to gather to discuss the future interests of the institution. Several thousand dollars have already been subscribed on the total of thirty thousand which must be secured by December 15th.

IN THE MATTER OF THE LIGHT AND WATER BONDS FOR THE TOWN OF MARLINTON, WEST VIRGINIA

At a meeting of the Common Council of the Town of Marlinton, West Virginia, held on the 2nd day of July, 1917, an ordinance was adopted authorizing the issuance and sale of Twenty Thousand ($20,000.00) Dollars of the bonds of said town, known as the "Light and Water Bonds." By virtue of said ordinance, the Mayor of said town, on the 2nd day of July, 1917, issued a proclamation for an election to be held in said town for the purpose of either ratifying or rejecting said ordinance, and in said proclamation set the 30th day of July, 1917, as the date for the election to be held in said town for said purpose. The return of said election held on that date shows that 107 votes were cast for ratification and 10 votes against ratification, so that more than three-fifths of the voters voted at said election voted in favor of the ratification of said ordinance.

The Town of Marlinton has caused to be transmitted to me a duly certified copy of all orders, proclamations, notices, advertisements, affidavits and records of all the proceedings connected with or pertaining to said bond issue and the said bonds. I have examined the same and it is my opinion that said bond issue is regular, and all proceedings in compliance with the statute: I therefore, approve the validity of said bonds, as provided by chapter 57, Acts of the Legislature, 1917.
